Lady Wolverines

The Lady Wolverines hosted the 2011 Aurora Conference Volleyball Tournament this past weekend. All the teams put in a good showing but Tok was able to get by 3 of the teams to get into the championship game and secure a State tournament slot. The ladies played a great championship game giving Kenny Lake a tough run taking the final game to 30-28. Great job ladies! The Lady Wolverines will travel to Anchorage for the State tournament on Wednesday. The first game is against Klawock at 2pm at Dimond High School. If you can come out and support your team!

Lost and Found will be in the gym hallway between 12/19 -12/22 please stop by and claim any of your students lost items. Any unclaimed items will be taken to VFW on the 22nd of December.

Happy Holidays

Last weekend, our school hosted Volleyball Regionals. To help our Tok Wolverine Girls celebrate Regionals, our school participated in dress up days all week. A favorite day was on Wednesday, or 'Dress Like Your Favorite Teacher' Day. There were several students that participated and dressed as their favorite teacher. There were students dressed as Mr. Byrd, Mr. McGill, Mr. Curtiss, Mr. Monroe, Mr. Cronk, Ms. Canner and Mrs. Jacobs. When asked how he felt about having his very own mini Me, Mr Byrd said, "It was great having my own Mini-Me for the day!"
