Dads and Donuts, Go Together!

Donuts for Dads — Huge Success!

We don't know where they all came from — but there was a huge turnout for the Donuts for Dads celebration held in the Tok School Library on Wednesday, September 21, beginning at 7:30 am.

Dads, Grandpas, uncles were all in attendance, making the extra efforts to spend time with their kids and teachers at Tok School. The atmosphere was relaxed and the conversations centered around hunting, work, school and the kids. It was an excellent time to get to meet new staff and teachers.

We want to thank all of the dads and others who attended the gathering. No official count was taken — however there was between 75 and 100 in attendance. And, the class with the highest percentage of Dads in Attendance was grade 6. They received ice cream instead of more donuts!

GAP Culture Night — September 28, 2011

There will be local Athabascan Presenters that will be teaching activities to the students during GAP from 3-5 PM. If you are interested in sewing, story telling, dancing, traditional foods, then come check out our afternoon of fun.

There will also be a traditional dinner from 5-6:30. This event is open to all. You are invited to explore one of the local cultures in our area. If you would like to donate native food or help cook, please contact Karla Champagne at 883-4427. Thanks to Tok Native Association, Tanana Chiefs Conference, and the local Village Tribal Members for helping to get this night off to a good start!

Please obey the posted speed limit signs at the school. Kids will be kids and we need to watch out after school & GAP!

Curtiss' Writing Corner:

A sample from Ruby Walden,

When the next dawn broke, static filled the air, the taste of death still tangible. The lost King's sons were out in the harbor, trying to salvage what little they could of their kingdom. Suddenly this rumbling thunder sounded from beneath the depths. The fiend broke the water, sounding an explosion. Rearing up against the ship, this sea demon bore down on the unfortunate men abroad.

Spotlight On the Office Queens

I asked my office TA's to tell me a little bit about them, and I wanted you to know them as well as I get to. I asked them a series of question:

Name and Grade

What is one of your favorite quotes?

What do you want to be when you grow up?

If you could be any fictional character, who would you choose?

What story does your family always tell about you?

What is something you learned in the last week?

What was the last movie, TV show or book that made you cry or tear up?

What is your favorite part of being an office queen?

Becca Watkins Grade 11

Life isn't about waiting for the storm to pass, It's about learning to dance in the rain.

I want to own a daycare. Get my masters degree in Early Childhood Development.

Sandy off of Sponge Bob Square Pants

When I was 3 years old, in the middle of the night I got up and got into my mom's make-up.... I have photos.

The types of Birds that we have around Alaska

Secret life of the American teenager, that made me tear up.

I love helping out, and with working in the office. I can help out, and be a part of the school.

Katy Range Grade 12

I believe everything happens for a reason, people change so that you can let go, things go wrong so you can appreciate them when they're right and sometimes things fall apart so better things can fall together. Marilyn Monroe

Child Psychologist

Vampire Diaries, Elena Gilbert

All my funny words I would say Zeena-water.....

The movie Remember me

Not sitting in one place

Denae Boulanger - 11

Laugh your heart out, dance in the rain, cherish the moment, ignore the pain, live, love, laugh, forgive and forget, life's too short to be living in regret.

A flag girl / pilot car driver

Tinker bell

When I was little we had chickens and I wanted them to fly away so I would throw them in the air trying to make them fly.

That bull moose only come out early in the morning and late at night, never in mid-day.

Alice

No homework, I get exercise.

I would like to give a special thanks to all three of these girls for all of the hard work they do. Ms. April
